
2.0 Environmental Compliance Summary

This section briefly describes how environmental compliance is being achieved for the Hanford Site. Included are subsections describing 1) stakeholder and tribal involvement in the environmental restoration and waste management missions of the Hanford Site, 2) the current status of the Site's compliance with principal regulations, 3) issues and actions arising from these compliance efforts, and 4) environmentally significant unusual occurrences.