Mount Rainier is the highest peak in Washington State, rising to 14,410 feet with breathtaking vistas. Everyone can see Mount Rainier when you travel to Seattle, but to grasp its full beauty, you must see it up close. Subalpine wildflower meadows ring the icy volcano while ancient forest cloaks Mount Rainier's lower slopes. Wildlife abounds in the park's ecosystems. Discovery awaits.

Mount Rainier National Park offers miles of maintained trails for your enjoyment. On this trip, our base will be the Paradise Lodge. You can hike in the Paradise area, hang out in the historic lodge, or just 'be there' to relax and enjoy the beauty and serenity of Mount Rainier.
