

AMERICAN INDIANS AND CULTURAL AND NATURAL RESOURCE MANAGEMENT: THE LAW AND PRACTICE REGARDING FEDERAL LANDS

- MEMORANDUM -

To: Course Participants
From: Dave Ruppert, Course Coordinator
Date: April 16, 2001

Enclosed with this memo are materials you will need to review. These include:

- 1) A memo from Professor Ray Cross, University of Montana , providing an overview of the course.
- 2) A Course Agenda.
- 3) General Information on Travel and Motel reservations in Cedar City, UT
- 4) A motel reservation form.
- 5) Course Registration information.

Please take special notice of instructions for securing a motel room near the conference center. The Iron County Tourism and Convention Bureau has kindly agreed to coordinate motel reservations. Rooms have been blocked for our course in four area motels. In order to take advantage of the discounted rates, you will need to make reservation by filling out the attached form and sending or faxing it to the person indicated. Do this as soon as you can since the rooms will only be held for our reservations until May 5th, 2001.

I am looking forward to seeing you at the course.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call or email me.
