ONE DOWN, ONE TO GO: The first of two landmark 300 Area water towers was dismantled on schedule as part of the 300 Area cleanup by the River Corridor Project. This tower, 3902-B, was dismantled first to allow seven raven chicks to leave the nest in the 3902-A tower a short distance away (Hanford Reach, April 16 and May 7).

A SUPER TEAM: Members of the Hanford Patrol participate in the Super Team event at a Department of Energy competition in Albuquerque, N.M. ("Hanford Patrol, Benton County officers win top honors at SPOTC," Hanford Reach, June 25). Left to right are Sam Bell, Scott White, Robert Morrow, Devin Shelby and Scot McGary. The Super Team event involved an obstacle and shooting course that simulated a tactical response.

OPEN FOR BUSINESS: The Retail Surplus Store is now open every Tuesday and Friday from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Warehouse 259. Take Stevens Drive to Power Plant Road (Energy Northwest) and follow the arrows. The Tri-City Industrial Development Council's Tri-Cities Asset Reinvestment Company runs the store. Office furniture, computers, storage cabinets and industrial items are among the items currently offered for sale. Current terms are cash only. Credit cards will be accepted in the future. All items are sold "as is" for fixed prices, and the customer must remove purchased items on the day of sale. There are no exchanges or refunds. Customers who cannot shop during the established store hours may call 377-3205 for an appointment to view the inventory and make purchases on Mondays, Wednesdays or Fridays.
