

2003 Health and Safety Exposition set for May 6-8

All Hanford employees and their families, friends and neighbors are invited to attend the Health and Safety Exposition, Expo 2003, on May 6-8 at the Trade, Recreation and Agricultural Center in Pasco. Both the Exhibit Hall and Pavilion at TRAC will have exhibits concerning the safety and health of employees and their families, both on and off the job.

There is no admission fee to attend Expo 2003; parking is also free. Ask your manager about your company's policy for attending Expo 2003. Each company has different time allowances for employees to attend Expo. The sign-in sheets for safety meetings will be located in the Pavilion. Tours are available for special groups visiting Expo 2003. Check at the information booth as you first enter TRAC for tour information.

Featured events are the vehicle crash demonstrations, which will take place in the Arena and will last 45 to 60 minutes. Following each demonstration, the audience will have about 30 minutes to talk to the participants. Also featured are the bicycle rodeo and bicycle safety inspections, which take place in the Pavilion.

Expo 2003 events kick off on Saturday, May 3, with the Expo Golf Tournament Four-Person Scrambler. The event begins with a shotgun start at 1:45 p.m. at the Columbia Point Golf course in Richland. You can select your own four-person teams or the Expo staff can help put teams

Volunteers needed for 2003 Health and Safety Expo

Thirty volunteers are needed to act the parts of victims and drunk drivers for the vehicle crash demonstration at the Health and Safety Exposition May 6-8 at the Trade, Recreation and Agricultural Center in Pasco. In addition to the vehicle crash demonstration, 12 volunteers are needed to help with the bicycle rodeo. Smaller-sized volunteers are needed to wear the costumes of the Vince and Larry crash-test dummies. Coordinators of the 2003 Expo also need 15 easels to display signs. If you are interested in volunteering, or can lend easels, contact Janette Pettey at 376-2884 or at janette_k_pettey@ri.gov.
