

Duratek tourney kick-starts United Way drive

The Duratek-United Way Golf Tournament held earlier this month at Canyon Lakes Golf Course raised $22,000 to begin the 2001 United Way campaign.

A check from Duratek was presented to United Way on July 12. Joel Eacker, president of Duratek Northwest, and Ed Aromi, president and general manager of Duratek Hanford, presented the check to Mid-Columbia United Way Board Chairman Bud Knore and local United Way President Tom Halazon.

Aromi is also fundraising chairman for the 2001 campaign to be held this fall. Dave Van Leuven of Fluor Hanford and Tom Schaffer of the Hanford Atomic Metal Trades Council are co-chairmen of the campaign's Hanford section. ♦
