

SUPPLIES FOR SCHOOL KIDS: Fluor Community Involvement Team volunteers help organize more than 23,900 items of school supplies for delivery to 58 schools and agencies. The crayons, spiral notebooks, glue, rulers, pencils, pens, folders, notebook paper and markers worth more than $26,000 were donated by Hanford employees and community members during the Backpack Basics drive. Local Fluor employees also gave more than $725 in cash and the Fluor Corporation donated 250 backpacks. Left to right are James Tamez of RYSC-AmeriCorps, Chuck Forrester of Fluor Hanford and Diane Hart of the Volunteer Center.
