HOLDING KOHRT: Carl Kohrt (left), new president and chief executive officer of Battelle, shares a lighthearted moment with Bill Rogers, center, associate laboratory director for Pacific Northwest National Laboratory, and PNNL researcher Paul Ellis. They were in the Nuclear Magnetic Resonance Lab of the Environmental Molecular Sciences Laboratory on a tour of PNNL last week. Battelle, based in Columbus, Ohio, operates PNNL for the Department of Energy. Kohrt joins Battelle after a 29-year career with Kodak.
