

Analytical Services Support to Hanford Programs

The 222-S and WSCF laboratories were consolidated into the Waste Management Laboratory, and the Special Analytical Services group was integrated into the new organization. In addition to more responsive customer services, annual cost savings in excess of $1 million were achieved.

_____ Responsive and Cost-Effective Support Services