1. SCOPE

1.1 Introduction

Checks paid LOC funding is a method used by the Federal Government to provide funds to a contractor who is performing services or providing goods to the Department of Energy (DOE). Under this method, Contractor issues payments for program purposes. When these payments clear Financial Institution, the payments are totaled, and Financial Institution draws funds from an Automated Standard Application for Payment (ASAP) 1031 system account at the Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond (FRB-Richmond) for credit to Contractor's account. Financial Institution is compensated for services performed in the form of direct payment of fee including a noninterest-bearing deposits with Earnings Credit for full or partial offset of service charges. Information necessary to bid for and operate such an account and to establish the reporting requirements Financial Institution must meet are provided below. Financial Institution shall perform as detailed in this Agreement and the Statement of Work all technical and other work necessary to provide Banking Services as specified herein under the checks paid method letter of credit financing.

1.2 Work Included

Financial Institution shall provide banking services as specified herein and under the Special Financial Institution Account(s) Agreement for use with the Payments Cleared Financing Arrangement.

- A. Financial Institution will total the payments cleared against the special account and subtract any deposits of available funds. This sum will be drawn from the ASAP 1031 account at FRB-Richmond. The amount of the drawdown should be sufficient to maintain the account balance net positive collected and as close to zero as administratively possible, avoiding hard dollar overdraft and negative collected overdrafts if possible. Financial Institution must determine the cutoff time for processing payments and deposits to ensure same day credit. The drawdown is affected by sending an online request for funds (type code 1031) to FRB-Richmond via Fedwire by 5:45 p.m. Eastern time. Contractor will provide Financial Institution with enrollment forms that will permit withdrawal of funds from the ASAP 1031 account at FRB-Richmond. Financial Institution will complete the forms and return them to Contractor.

- a.) Financial Institution shall provide the draw down calculation to Contractor's Treasury email address for written verification from Treasury personnel prior to submission.
- b.) Financial Institution shall submit the calculation to Contractor not later than 1:30 p.m. PT or 30 minutes before the Federal deadline, whichever is earlier.
- c.) Contractor personnel will provide verification via email for the drawdown. In the event that Financial Institution does not receive written verification prior to the Federal Reserve deadline from Contractor's Treasury personnel, Financial Institution shall proceed with the draw down.

B. If Financial Institution providing these services is a branch of a parent institution, the drawdown on ASAP 1031 and subsequent transfer of funds from FRB-Richmond must be accomplished in time for the branch to receive same-day credit for the funds requested, before 5:45 p.m. ET.

C. It is anticipated that Contractor's account's balance will be as close to zero dollars ($0) as administratively possible. However, if a balance occurs, the rate used to compute the amount due is as follow:

- a.) Assuming an excessive positive balance:

Positive Average Monthly Collected Balance shall earn a variable Earnings Credit Rate based on the then offered bank managed rate shown on the account analysis statement which is subject to change at any time and is due and payable to Contractor monthly.

- b.) Assuming a negative balance:

Negative Average Daily Balance times an annual rate of Prime+4%, divided by a 360-day year times the actual number of days in the month.

- c.) If an overdraft occurs, due to a banking error, Financial Institution will not charge Contractor overdraft or negative collected fees.

D. If Financial Institution has a pattern of excess drawdowns and fails to correct the problem after written notice from Contractor, Financial Institution will be assessed interest on all excess balances at the Federal Funds Rate for the month(s), and the special financial institution account agreement will be terminated. Penalties will be remitted to Contractor.

E. Financial Institution will provide Contractor with a bank statement and an account analysis monthly. The account analysis will include the data necessary for Contractor to determine that the costs of the services are commensurate with the level of compensation being provided to Financial Institution, and that the average daily demand account balance is being maintained net positive and as close to zero as administratively possible.

F. Financial Institution shall be compensated by the following method:

Calculating monthly fees based on services rendered and invoiced to Contractor as set forth in the Agreement. Contractor shall issue a check or automated clearinghouse authorization transfer to Financial Institution in payment thereof within 30 days from the receipt of the invoice.

G. Contractor observes a holiday curtailment during the Christmas holidays from Christmas to New Years. Financial Institution shall provide the necessary services to drawdown an amount sufficient to cover payments cleared during the curtailment period.

H. Financial Institution shall not outsource any services; but shall provide all services from the same financial institution.
