Reasonably Describe Records:

Describe the specific record(s) you seek with sufficient detail that a knowledgeable official of the activity may locate the record with a reasonable amount of effort. Such detail should include: dates, titles, file designations, and offices to be searched. Since most DOE records are not retained permanently, the more information that you provide, the better the opportunity there is to determine if the records involved still exist and where. The FOIA clearly states that records must exist at the time the request is submitted.

Description:* Describe the information that you would like to request as specifically as possible:

In October 2014, the Savannah Laboratory Tank Vapor Assessment Team (TVAT) issued its Hanford Tank Vapor Assessment Report, SRNL-RP-2014-00791 (TVAT Report).

One section of the TVAT Report stated:

An assessment of worker tank vapor exposures based upon personal air sample monitoring was conducted over 1.5 years from May 2005 through December 2007. This assessment included over 4000 personal samples collected over 571 different days in all tank farms during both non-waste-disturbing and waste-disturbing activities.

TVAT Report at 51. I am requesting copies of all air sample monitoring records, reports, data, and results for the "over 4000 personal samples collected over 571 different days..." that are referenced in the TVAT Report.

In addition, I am requesting copies of any other air sample monitoring records, reports, data, and results for air samples taken at or near the Hanford Tank Farm Area between December 2007 and August 2014.

I am also requesting copies of all records, reports, data, and results from sampling for gases, or chemicals in the head space from the 177 Hanford underground tanks.
